What our factory's first real build cost, review included.

2

Als from two companies on every build: one builds, one checks.

4

Website updates yesterday, each reviewed first.

Game 1

Brewers host the Dodgers on Sunday, 7:00 p.m.

BUILT TODAY

Our factory's first real work: a free-estimate page for a local painter. One AI built it, another checked it, and a person said yes.

A new homepage with our crew of six characters, each standing for a real job.

A first privacy notice and terms page.

THE RULE

Nothing the factory makes goes anywhere until a person approves it. Every step leaves a receipt.

HONEST LESSON

The first design let the AI write more than the delivery path could carry. A second reviewer caught it before the first paid run.

WATCHING

Next for the factory: approving work from a phone, behind your own sign-in.

Written Saturday morning from Friday's records.
